WOMAN RAISES A STORM

MAYOR DEFENDS THE NOMINEE
AGAINST SERIOUS CHARGE.

For Mayor—Rudolph Kuchler.
For City Attorney—John E. Bagley.
For City Recorder—W. J. Critchlow.
For City Auditor—Mrs. Florence.
For Treasurer—James E. Halverson.
For Judge—John D. Murphy.

Republicans in Ogden in convention today nominated Rudolph Kuchler for mayor over John S. Lewis on the first ballot. The name of William Glasmann was not mentioned in the convention in connection with the nomination, although the delegates did not know until Kuchler was declared the nominee that the mayor would not step in and assert his ownership. Mr. Lewis made but a sorry showing in the voting. The balance of the ticket was made up as given above. The contest for attorney being the most spirited.

One of the features of the convention was the presence of the large number of women. An incident of more than ordinary interest was the charge of a woman made by Mrs. Shields calling for an explanation from the candidate for mayor. The platform is of the customary Republican, spread-eagle order.

Convention Gets a Start.

It was nearly 2:30 when Chairman John D. Murphy brought the convention to order, the hour previous having been spent by candidates hustling among the delegates soliciting support.

After the secretary had read the call, Chairman Murphy announced the call. Chairman Murphy announced the call. Chairman Murphy announced the call.

When the convention reconvened the report of the committee on permanent organization and order of business was called for and was submitted as follows: Chairman, Judge J. A. Howell; secretary, R. A. Moyle; assistant secretary, Mrs. A. Greene; nominating committee, officers, mayor, attorney, recorder, auditor, treasurer, municipal judge.

The report was unanimously adopted. Messrs. Robert Moyle and W. G. Wilson were appointed as a committee to escort Judge J. A. Howell to the chair. It was incumbent upon the judge to make a speech, and he did so. He referred to the recent peace treaty consummated by President Roosevelt, as the judge put it, and he brought forth immense plaudits by referring to Utah as a state ahead of all the others in the intermountain country. He closed by saying that he intended to be fair to every one that afternoon, but if they did not accept his rulings after they were made he would step from "this position on to that one," pointing to the bench which was occupied by the mayor. The rally brought forth considerable laughter.

The report of the committee on credentials showed full delegations from all the wards, and no contests. The report was attested and adopted.

Judge Howell for Chairman.

They Point With Pride.
We, the Republicans of Ogden City, in convention assembled, announce our al-taken to allow the committees time to formulate reports.

They Point With Pride.
We, the Republicans of Ogden City, in convention assembled, announce our allegiance to the great Republican party of the nation, and call attention to the world-wide influence exerted by the president, Mr. Roosevelt, our great president.

We endorse the state Republican administration, and we point with especial pride to the wise, economical and business-like administration of Mayor Glasmann and his co-laborers.

We pledge the magnanimity of this convention to a continuance of the policy of the present administration.

We are in favor of public ownership and control of the city water works and other public utilities, and shall demand of our legislature unceasing efforts in this direction until a state law is enacted permitting condemnation and purchase by cities of all public utilities.

We pledge our nominees to conduct the affairs of Ogden City in 1906 and 1907 in a business-like, straightforward and honest manner, and vigorously to enforce all laws and ordinances.

The Republican party keeps in view three great principles in the government of Ogden city: public improvements, public economy and public morality.

Kuchler Up for Mayor.

When Chairman J. A. Howell announced that nominations for mayor were in order, the delegates "rang in."

Mr. W. Wade immediately secured the floor and placed in nomination Rudolph Kuchler. The speaker then in an eloquent and humorous mood, made a felicitous speech. When he mentioned the name of his candidate there was uproarious applause from all parts of the house, and "seconds" came from all delegates.

In the midst of the noise L. L. Clark was recognized by the chairman and in a quiet, modest speech, nominated John S. Lewis. Moroni Thomas seconded the nomination.

County Clerk David Mattson, George J. Kelly and several others favored Mr. Kuchler with brief speeches.

F. J. Henderson, who mildly made the charge of "political trickery" against Kuchler's friends, spoke in behalf of Mr. Lewis.

County Commissioner Stanford started a speech in favor of Mr. Lewis, but began to make veiled references to Mr. Kuchler's legislative career, when he was called down by the chairman, who said he would not permit any personal reference to any other candidate, and with this injunction, Mr. Stanford shortly after closed his speech.

Mrs. Shields Draws Blood.

Mrs. Kate Shields seconded the nomination of John S. Lewis by doing so her brother would lose his position on the police force.

C. G. Gunnell asked that the lady name the one who had made the threat against her brother.

Friends had and advised me to try a well known proprietary medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I had often seen the newspaper advertisements of the remedy but never took any stock in the advertised medicine nor could believe a fifty-cent patent medicine would touch me.

In his own words he said: "I consulted one physician after another and each one seemed to understand my case, but all the same they each failed to do anything to help me. I was getting weaker and weaker, and my appetite and vigor were gone. For two years I went from pillar to post, from one sanitarium to another. I gave up smoking, quit coffee and even renounced my daily glass of beer, without any marked improvement.

"Friends had and advised me to try a well known proprietary medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I had often seen the newspaper advertisements of the remedy but never took any stock in the advertised medicine nor could believe a fifty-cent patent medicine would touch me.

"I was surprised at the end of the first week to note a marked improvement in my appetite and general health, and before the two packages were gone I was certain that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were going to remedy my ailment and they did not disappoint me. I can eat and sleep and enjoy my coffee and beer, and I feel like a new man. I have never known the horrors of dyspepsia.

"Out of friendly curiosity I wrote to the proprietors of the remedy asking for information as to what the tablets contained, and they replied that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were a remedy of the most natural and wholesome kind, and that they were a fifty-cent patent medicine would touch me.

"The root of the matter is this: The digestive elements contained in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will direct the food to recuperate and the nerves and whole system to receive the benefit of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, you will have no need of nerve tonics and sanitariums.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been in the market only a few years, probably every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain now sells them, and considers them the most popular and successful of any preparation for stomach trouble.

Mr. Shields replied that it was Mr. Kuchler.

Cries of "Kuchler!" went up all over the hall.

Mr. Kuchler appeared and stated that in conversation with the woman she had stated that she was prejudiced Dr. Condon, but if he was not in the field she would be for him.

Mrs. Shields replied that she had said so, but after she had heard the threat she was determined to exercise the privilege of her free Americanism.

Then there was more trouble. R. S. Farnsworth said Kuchler had a franchise in his pocket that he wanted the city council to pass.

Close to Senator Kearns.

Mayor William Glasmann now secured the floor. It was the first and only time he had been heard from. In his usual style he started in to control things, but the delegates would not stand for it. He denied that Mr. Kuchler desired a franchise, but if the latter desired to build a waterworks system, and the present company would not come to time, the speaker would be glad to see him do it. The only thing the mayor had heard against him was that he had been too close to Senator Kearns.

"I want to tell this convention," said Glasmann, "that he has not been half so close to Senator Kearns as I have."

This brought forth roars of applause and a cheer from the delegates. Dr. Condon's speech for the majority candidates.

A ballot was then taken, and resulted as follows: Rudolph Kuchler, 88; John S. Lewis, 12. Mr. Lewis moved to make the nomination unanimous, which was done amid much enthusiasm.

Bagley Wins Over Harris.

For city attorney, John E. Bagley, N. J. Harris and J. D. Skeen were placed in nomination. It required two ballots to decide the nomination. The first ballot resulted as follows: Bagley, 100; Harris, 57; Skeen, 42. Second ballot: Bagley, 125; Harris, 34.

Harris moved that the nomination be unanimous, and pledged his support to the successful nominee.

Councilman Chambers named W. J. Critchlow, the present incumbent, for city recorder, and Don Maguire named Miss Josie Kimball. The ballot resulted: Critchlow, 100; Kimball, 0.

The name of Mrs. Florence O'Neil Stanford was presented by B. H. Hanson for auditor. Mrs. Booth withdrew her candidacy for the office and Mrs. Stanford was nominated by acclamation.

James E. Halverson and Hyrum Pinckney were nominated for the office of treasurer. The first ballot decided the question, Halverson receiving 154 votes and Pinckney, 85.

John D. Murphy was nominated by acclamation for municipal judge.

This closed the nomination and as the party emblem the flag unfurled was selected, and the convention adjourned sine die.

DEMOCRATS SELECT MEN

Nominations for Council Made by Wards and Delegates Chosen For Convention.

COUNCIL NOMINEES
First Ward—R. W. Emmett.
Second Ward—N. B. Bacon.
Third Ward—Samuel Thomas.
Fourth Ward—Chris Fygar.
Fifth Ward—J. H. Brown.

The Democratic primaries held last night were characterized by an unusually large attendance and keen interest was manifested in every ward. Harmony prevailed, the result being that exceptional candidates were nominated for each councilman. In each instance, the nomination was made by acclamation.

All these nominees are business men and with Dr. E. M. Conroy at the head of the ticket the combination will be a hard one to defeat. So far the Democrats have been saying but little for the past several days, but it is evident that they have been doing some solid work. On Saturday the convention will be held, and the first ballot will be taken. The following are the nominees for each ward: First Ward—Valentine Gideon or Joseph Cez; Second Ward—McFarland or John L. Herjick; Third Ward—Hattie L. Wade will probably be the unanimous choice of the convention for the nomination of auditor. The name of James F. Burton is frequently mentioned for the office of city treasurer.

First Ward—Asa Farr, J. Stanley Der, Mrs. C. W. Adams, Henry Andrews, James Harrop, Frank Higginbotham, R. S. Porter, Mrs. R. B. Porter, Fred Stuart, John Farr, R. W.
